

Security Report – Missing Person Notification Policy

Northwest Career College does not provide on-campus housing. Therefore, the institution does not maintain policies regarding missing student notifications.

If the institution initiates on-campus housing in the future, policies regarding missing student notifications will be posted in this area of the website.