

Teacher Preparation Program Report

Northwest Career College does not prepare teachers for initial state certification or licensure. Therefore, no teacher preparation program report is required under the Higher Education Opportunity Act.

If the institution initiates programs that prepare teachers for initial state certification or licensure in the future, the teacher preparation program report will be posted in this area of the website.