This section of the document serves as a quick reference for Air Force students to assist you in requesting your Air Force University Transcript, i.e. military training transcript. This process should only be used by members of the Air Force.

1. Air Force University does not process electronic transcript requests for official transcripts, nor does it send official transcripts electronically. However, NCC only requires unofficial transcripts and the Air Force University WILL process electronic transcript requests for unofficial transcripts through the Air Force Virtual Education Center.
2. If you wish to request an official copy of your transcripts from Air Force University, there are directions available on their website. If you choose to request official transcripts instead of unofficial transcripts, you should have a copy delivered directly to Northwest Career College, Attn: School Certifying Official, 7398 Smoke Ranch Road #100, Las Vegas, NV 89128 for most expedited processing of your transcript submission.
